Sub:- Issue of instructions to the Collectors of Central Excise to ensure the Collection of Cess from all registered Mills.

Sir,

I am directed to say that every oil mill, coming within the the purview of the Factories Act, is required to pay a cess at the rate of one annas per maund of oils extracted from oilseeds crushed, as per the provision laid down in the Indian Oilseeds Committee Act, 1946. This cess is collected from the Oil Mills by the Collectors of Central Excise, Madras, Bombay, Delhi, Allahbad, Calcutta and Deputy Collector of Central Excise, Shillong, under the Ministry of Finance, Government of India, and credited to the Oilseeds improvement Fund under intimation to the Secretary, Indian Central Oilseeds Committee, M. Block, New Delhi.

2. It has recently come to the notice of the Secretary, Indian Central Oilseeds Committee, that some mills, which are required to pay the cess under the Act are not paying it.

3. In order to ensure the collection of cess from all registered mills, it is requested that an up-to-date list of oil mills, registered as such and additions thereto from time to time may please be furnished to the Collector of Central Excise of your State and the Secretary, Indian Central Oilseeds Committee, M.Block New Delhi, under intimation to this Ministry.
